VI. BRIEF SUMMARY OF ACTIVITIES AND PROGRESS

J. Luke Engeriser, M.D. was appointed as the Director of Residency Training in November 2009. Under his direction significant improvements were made in the quality of the educational experience for residents. His collaboration with the Departments of Psychology and Neurology has strengthened our curriculum.

Dr. Engeriser has redesigned our website to improve both our recruiting of potential residents as well as departmental communication.

Our faculty and residents are committed to increasing their scholarly activity. In addition to increased publication over the past year, there are several additional articles in press. The faculty's dedication to teaching is evident.

Dr. Shakeel Raza received clinical instructor of the year award in July 2010 by the Physician Assistant students. Dr. Kenan Penaskovic received the Red Sash Award on May 7, 2010 voted by the senior College of Medicine students. Dr. Fasiha Haq, PGY 2, was the recipient of the William J. Patterson Resident Research Award at the Alabama Psychiatric Society Spring Meeting. At this meeting, J. Luke Engeriser, M.D. was elected Treasurer and Kenan Penaskovic, M.D. was elected Membership Chair of the Alabama Psychiatric Society.
